Age Divisions for the Purpose of Showing

- "Open" refers to a member of any age
- "Senior" refers to members 18 years of age as of Jan 1st of the current year
- "Youth" refers to members 14 – 17 years of age as of Jan 1st of the current year
- "Junior" a member 13 years of age or younger as of Jan 1st of the current year
- "Novice" is a member who has never competed or has limited riding abilities and has not yet mastered the lope/canter. Final judgment will be at the discretion of the division director.

Points and Ribbons

Awarded according to class placing regardless of number of entries per class. (unless stipulated in an individual division.)

- 1st place 6 points
- 2nd place 5 points
- 3rd place 4 points
- 4th place 3 points
- 5th place 2 points
- 6th place 1 point

Points are accumulated for each horse & rider/driver combination.

If riding/driving more than one horse those points will be calculated separately.

Day pass holders cannot qualify for points.

Official points tally shall be kept on the TPHC Facebook and website.

Fundraising Activities

In order to help promote our Club and fundraise, we are maintaining some of the fundraisers that have been successful in the past. Other fundraisers are planned and may be added at a later date.

All of the funds raised help the Club to purchase new items, repair equipment, and organize fun and successful events throughout the year.

Member participation in fundraising is essential to the success of our Club. You can show your support by purchasing items, volunteering some of your time, and by promoting our club to others in our community.

Trail Rides

There will be no charge for trail rides unless otherwise specified. If non-members would like to attend trail rides, day passes must be purchased.

General Show Entry Rules and Regulations

- A horse and rider shall not be allowed to compete unless proper entry is made and both horse and rider have fulfilled all requirements.
- Show registration will close fifteen (15) minutes prior to division start time.
- Entries shall not be accepted after registration has officially closed.
- Entry numbers must be worn by all competitors when competing in Western Pleasure, English, and Driving Pleasure Shows.
- An exhibitor may enter one or more horses per class but each horse may only have one rider per class. *Except for classes in the Driving Pleasure division.
- Exhibitors, owners and their guests must always act in a respectful and courteous manner towards other competitors, spectators, show officials and judges.
- In all divisions, a rider may move up an age division, but may not reverse for the rest of the season. Once he or she has moved up, he or she must remain in that division for the year.
- It is the exhibitor's responsibility to ensure horse and rider are registered under the same name at each show or event. This will ensure point allotment is correctly done.
- Competitors must participate in a minimum of three (3) out of five (5) shows to obtain a year end high point award. Day pass holders do not qualify for yearend awards.
- Any communication with riders in the ring may be done by coaches, but must be kept positive and not done in a way that disturbs other riders/competitors in the ring. Absolutely no negative or abusive comments will be tolerated. If the communication is deemed to be excessive or having a negative impact on any rider/competitor in the ring, the coach will be asked to stop all communication with those in the ring.
- A class will run with 2 or more riders only, however exceptions can be made by directors to run with only one rider providing there are no time issues, constraints or other issues
- All riders must provide accurate insurance coverage before entering the ring

Horses

- TPHC is a non-breed specific club and is therefore open to all horse breeds regardless of age, size, or color.
- Riders and owners must maintain control of their horses at all times.
- Horses must be treated with respect, dignity, and compassion. Humane treatment of the horse is required at all times.
- Appropriate tack must be used for each division. TPHC judges reserve the right to inspect and disallow any inappropriate equipment.

- Stallions are the direct responsibility of the owner and should only be handled by experienced members of 18 years or more. Stallions are not to be left unattended at any time.
-  When attending Shows at the NL Event Grounds, members must ensure a complete cleanup of their trailer site. Hay, manure and all garbage must be picked up before departing the site. The club is charged a $50.00 fine should a town employee have to clean up a mess left after a show. **

Judges

The TPHC considers the designation of a judge to be a privilege and not a right. It is bestowed by the committee to individuals whose expertise and personal character merit the honor. He or she shall judge all TPHC events in accordance to all rules, regulations, and guidelines. The judging of each horse and competitor shall be fair, honest, impartial, and accomplished within the specific rules and guidelines of that performance and event.

A judge's conduct must be exemplary. It is subject to review by the committee with or without notice or formal hearing.

Judges must:

- Contact the TPHC officials upon arrival at a show at which they are to officiate.
- Be present and remain available to assist show management in meeting the responsibilities of rule compliance.
- Wear the proper attire for the TPHC event /division they are judging.
- Act and communicate in a respectful and professional manner.

Judges may use his or her discretion to:

- Disqualify any competitor or horse from competition for improper conduct.
- Refuse entry into the ring / arena or remove an entry from a class because of improper attire, inadequate or unsafe equipment.

Judges may not:

- Personally exhibit a horse or exhibit a horse that he or she owns in whole or in part at a show he / she is officiating.
- Be involved in the management of a show and officiate as a judge at that show.
- Visit or inspect the stall area, nor visit the owners, trainers, exhibitors or their representatives.
- Discuss any horse entered in the show before the judging.

- Ride or in any manner participate in the role of exhibitor for a horse in the class while judging an event.
- Re-judge a class once it has been completed. Once the judge has marked his/her card and made his selections for awards, no changes can be made in the judge's record.
- Communicate in any way with any of the exhibitors pertaining to judging any horse or competitor at the show for which he/she was selected for judging. No competitor may contact, or attempt to communicate with the judge selected for an event at which he/she will compete in regards to that competition. Further, exhibitors shall not communicate with judges for any reason prior to the completion of judging unless the ring steward is present.
- Only accept to speak to a competitor in the presence of the ring steward.
- Accept to speak to a competitor in the presence of the ring steward and share his opinion pertaining to the event in which that person was judged. All communications shall be courteous and respectful.

Ring Steward

A competent Ring Steward will be retained for all shows for each of the judges. This person must be able to demonstrate to the committee that he/she has the required experience and is familiar with the TPHC rules and guidelines. The Ring Steward may not act in this capacity and also act as show secretary or show manager.

The Ring Steward shall:

- Aid the judge in ensuring the events run smoothly by taking care of small details, assembling the class promptly, keeping the program on schedule, eliminating delays between classes and maintaining control of horses and exhibitors in the ring.
- Notify the judge when all horses are present for each class and inform his of any absences.
- Ensure no person rides more than one horse in any class unless otherwise allowed.
- Refrain from discussing with and/or advising the judge in regard to any competitor or horse in any given class or event.
- Remain objective at all times and ensure that he/she does not take any part in any of the judging.

- Maintain a good general control of the activity in the ring as he/she acts as a mediator between competitors and the judge.
- Be ready to move and place horses and competitors as the judge advises.
- May use his authority to remove horses or exhibitors from the ring in order to ensure the safety of all.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Each pair will require a volunteer
- Each race will be timed
- Riders in open must mount and dismount unassisted

Trail Ride Division

The TPHC trail rides are non-competitive activities that take place outside the confines of the show arena. During a ride, many elements on the trail remain unpredictable and can affect both horse and rider. Common sense, rider etiquette, and safe practices must be used at all times by all who attend.

Proper attire

All riders must wear the following:

- Approved helmets must be worn by all riders under the age of 18 years. (All riders are encouraged to wear helmets for their own safety.)
- All riders must wear a boot or shoe with a minimum of ½" heel. Boots must easily slide out of stir-up and cannot be wedged in.

Rules and Regulations

- All riders must follow the directives of the trail boss.
- Riders are to be saddled up and ready to leave on time.
- Riders and their horses must stay on the designated trail. Respect of land owners is essential.
- Riders must only walk or trot their horses unless stipulated by the trail boss.
- Aggressive horses and horses that may kick are to be marked with a red ribbon on the tail.
- All riders are to respect the space between horses (min 8 feet).
- Racing is strictly prohibited. This behavior may lead to disciplinary action.
- No smoking is allowed on trail rides. Smoking will be permitted in designated areas only.
- Dogs are not allowed.
- Only one rider per horse is permitted.

Notes:

It is important to condition yourself and your horse before setting out on a long trail ride. You must maintain your horse by feeding it a healthy diet, ensuring regular vaccinations, deworming and adequate farrier work.

All riders are expected to inform the trail boss or drag riders if they do not feel comfortable with an obstacle or pace. No one is obligated to attempt anything they are not comfortable with such as: steep hills, water crossings, cantering, etc. Each rider is responsible for his/her own safety and must make decisions in accordance to their degree of comfort and acquired skill.

Elections

- The election of the executive committee of the TPHC shall occur during the fall meeting. All active members will be invited to attend in order to elect the members of the executive for the upcoming year.
- The members shall be able to vote by secret ballot.
- Nine members are to be elected to the executive board each year.
- Only members in good standing with the club may be nominated and elected to the executive.
- In order to vote or to hold a position in the executive, the member must be 18 years of age or older.
- Members must be present at the elections meeting in order to be nominated and cast a ballot. However, a member may submit a written nomination to the elections president, should he or she not be able to attend.
- Only those capable of fulfilling all of the obligations of the position for which they are nominated should accept the nomination.

Committees

Should they be required, committees may be appointed by the executive to carry out special assignments and activities.

At least one representative from each committee shall attend executive meetings in order to report on the committee's activities. Committee members are not entitled to vote at meeting of the executive.

Disciplinary Action

All members of the TPHC should conduct themselves in such a way as always be respectful of all rules and regulations as stated in this booklet. Members must always act in the best interest of the club.

Conduct on show grounds and during TPHC functions and events, shall be orderly, responsible, sportsmanlike and humane in the treatment of horses.

Procedure for disciplinary action:

- ❖ 1st offence – Member will receive an oral reprimand stating the offence.
- ❖ 2nd offence – Member will receive a written reprimand stating the offence. Member may be immediately disqualified from the show and/or be disqualified from the next show or event.
- ❖ 3rd offence – Membership will be revoked for the season. No refund will be made.

At all times the members of the executive committee reserve the right to immediately disqualify a rider should the offence constitute a major infraction and/or a danger to self or others (riders, spectators, and horses).

Further, show management may immediately expel offenders from the show grounds in order to preserve the decorum of the show. A written report shall be filed with the TPHC executive following the incident in question. No refunds will be made.

Any member receiving disciplinary action may be entitled to a hearing before the executive committee. In order to receive a hearing, a written request must be submitted. Conditions surrounding such a hearing are to be established by the executive committee.

Submitting Complaints

All complaints regarding the TPHC, its members, or events shall be forwarded to the TPHC executive in writing. Letters stating the concerns or requesting meetings are to be addressed to the sitting President.
